

SPHERE

MEDIA PACK

A NEW VISION

SPHERE is a quarterly magazine and is in its 17th year. Our model is based on brands as storytellers, part advertising and part partnership, enabling brands to participate in either model. SPHERE is hand delivered to prime residential addresses in London worth more than £5 million (Belgravia, Knightsbridge, Mayfair, Chelsea, Holland Park etc) as well as mailing copies to our partners' top customers at their home addresses. This guarantees access to a hand-picked, high-net-worth audience. The partnership involves a curated editorial approach and participating brands send SPHERE to their highest value customers to their home address so partners can reach a shared, exclusive readership.

FROM THE EDITOR

Welcome to SPHERE which delivers finger on the pulse insider news and views with a fresh pair of eyes.

Taking a more mindful approach, we are embracing the concept of slow luxury. This means long reads, including immersive photo-stories and more considered and sustainable choices and investments. With this at the forefront of our editorial ethos, we are curating the world's most covetable experiences for our informed, curious and affluent readership. We explore emerging trends in luxury, fashion, beauty, interiors, culture, wellness, tech, property and food and drink – all under the gaze of SPHERE's intelligent editorial mix and beautiful design. It is about putting sustainability and wellness centre stage with a high dose of glamour and style, as well as taking a step back and enjoying the true delights of nature and home comforts. One of the highlights of our magazine is exclusively commissioned illustrated wraparound covers, which come bespoke for partners.

THE NUTS AND BOLTS

WHAT DOES A PARTNERSHIP MEAN?

SPHERE is creating a community of luxury brands as a new media model and this does not constitute any formal partnership between the brands or with SPHERE/ILN. However, through our discussions at CEO/CMO level, we anticipate connections and creative synergies will grow out of the collaboration that may grow beyond SPHERE.

WHAT DOES THE PARTNERSHIP INCLUDE AND HOW WILL THE MAILING COSTS/FULFILMENT BE CALCULATED?

The partnership includes six pages of editorial curated by the SPHERE team leveraging brand content, a bespoke cover, online feature on SPHERELIFE.COM, plus 2,500 copies of the printed magazine for your valued customers. Partners supply photography assets. Mailing costs will be an additional contribution of £3850 which will include fulfilment and a bespoke letter.

WHAT LEVEL OF COMMITMENT DOES THIS INVOLVE?

You do not need to commit to all four issues in one year and can plan participation according to wider brand activity.

WHAT EDITORIAL CONTROL WILL YOU HAVE?

The SPHERE team, led by Editor Jemima Sissons, will work with you to discuss the treatment and select content and stories. We will then provide an initial synopsis and also a storyboard for sign-off. Clients will have final approval for factual amends for print and online content, recognising this is an editorial rather than advertorial approach, curated through the SPHERE lens.

THE NUTS AND BOLTS

WHAT IS NEEDED FROM YOUR SIDE?

After signing a simple order form, there will be three stages on editorial: kick-off, creative work in progress and sign-off (one set of amends). You then select 2,500 customers to receive the magazine and provide the data securely, as well as agree the cover letter contents – ILN will do the rest. We also hope that brands will highlight their content/ participation through social and eCRM channels.

HOW WILL THE MAILINGS WORK?

ILN will organise and oversee all aspects of the mailing through our mailing house. We ensure that the magazines are posted at the same time, so we can guarantee delivery. Brands will select 2,500 valued clients with postal addresses and will provide the data securely to ILN. The magazines will be accompanied by a covering letter from the brand – co-branded with SPHERE – which introduces the magazine, highlighting your valuable content.

HOW WILL WE ENSURE THE MAILING IS GDPR-COMPLIANT?

ILN has decades of experience in mailing millions of magazines and sending email campaigns on behalf of major client brands and organisations. We treat all aspects of data management and data protection with the utmost care. As long as you are able to send communications/marketing by post, we will ensure it is GDPR-compliant. Illustrated London News Limited has been registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner every year since 2009 and has never had a data breach. Data will never be shared between brands or any third party.

TESTIMONIALS

“It’s been a great pleasure working with SPHERE magazine on bespoke content that has been well written and interesting to read for their Winter Issue. The magazine has been well received by our La Maison Rémy Martin members and we look forward to doing more creative editorials/content together...”

Spirits Marketing Manager – Rémy Martin

We are thrilled to be featured in SPHERE. This issue showcases the very best luxury brands and we are privileged to be alongside iconic brands like Rémy Martin & Aston Martin.

Marketing Manager – Smallbone

I started my first morning of the New Year by reading (cover to cover!) the autumn edition of Sphere. In a world full of unpleasant news with COVID now dominating the global psyche, SPHERE is a welcome reprieve and even when addressing the COVID topic, I found the Air Partner interview and how the company reoriented itself to succeed in such adverse climate both fascinating and exemplary. Thank you to your editorial staff for continuing to produce such a gem. It made my start of the year full of optimism of what the world had to offer and what one can do to make it better.

Chairman & CEO – Artisan du Chocolat

“I have received the past two issues of SPHERE magazine and would like to compliment you on its appearance and content. It’s a real luxury to have an interesting publication that one can take when travelling or leave at home as a ‘coffee table’ read for visitors or those rare solitary moments without teenagers.”

Taste the world

The unique and innovative S.A.L.T. programme available on Silversea cruise lines is a supremely authentic way to experience the true ingredients and flavours of diverse destinations

WORDS BY ANNE

What do you take home as a souvenir from your travels? A pair of Carriacou sandals, a ceramic jar, perhaps a patchwork from Karaman or maybe just a silver necklace.

When you return home, you might find the jar empty, the necklace broken, the sandals worn out. But the memories of the places you visited, the people you met, the food you ate, the experiences you had, these are the true souvenirs that last a lifetime.

That's the idea behind Silversea's S.A.L.T. programme, which allows you to taste the true ingredients and flavours of diverse destinations.

Each day, the chef on board prepares a special dish inspired by the local cuisine of the destination you are visiting. The ingredients are sourced locally, and the dishes are prepared in the ship's kitchen, ensuring that you are getting the most authentic taste of the destination.

Streets ahead

The Knightsbridge Estate is breathing new life into this historic area, with elevated levels of luxury and sustainability

WORDS BY DANIEL

Stopping in Knightsbridge can't fail to leave an impression. The new development at 111 Knightsbridge is a prime example of this. The building is a mix of historic and modern architecture, and it is a true reflection of the area's rich history.

Who you may not realise is how much is going on behind the scenes. The development is a true reflection of the area's rich history, and it is a true reflection of the area's rich history.
